"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vizograph picture with J. Warren Kerrigan
in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Captain Peter Blood, buccaneer, rescues Arabella's Bishop, with whom he is in love. Lord Wade, the English King James' son, offers Blood a commission under James, but the buccaneer has been sent as a slave to Barbados by this aristocratic man, and he declines. To place Arabella in safety he sells into the teeth of the British fleet commanded by Colonel Bishop, governor of Barbados, whom Blood had once made walk the plank. Blood's crew would fight to the end, but Blood orders the ship to heave to that Arabella may be landed safely.

"Again you misapprehend me," cried Lord Julian, between concern and indignation. "That is not intended. Your followers will be included in your commission."

"And dy'e think they'll go with me to hunt their brethren—the Brethren of the Coast?" Dye thought I could take a commission of King James'! I tell you I wouldn't be so bold as to bring them with me!—that's a sight to be seen though they be. Thief and pirate is what you heard Miss Bishop call me today—a thing of scorn, an outcast. And who made me that? Who made me thief and pirate? Dye dream, man, what is it to be a slave? But there! I groan not for nothing at all. I explain myself, I think, and God knows, it is not my custom. I am grateful to you, Lord Julian, for your kindly intentions. I am so. But you'll understand, perhaps. You look as if you might."

Lord Julian stood a moment, watching the tall figure as it moved away towards the trail, then, turning half his arms helplessly to his sides in dejection, he departed.

CHAPTER VII.

The Service of King James

Miss Arabella Bishop was aroused very early on the following morning by the brazen voice of a bugle and the insistent clanging of a bell in the ship's belfry. In his cabin Lord Julian was already astir and hurriedly dressing. About him in the waist, where all last night had been so peaceful, there was a friendly active bustle of some two-score men. By the rail immediately above the cabin, Lord Julian stood with Captain Blood in alteration with a one-eyed giant, whose head was swathed in a red cotton kerchief, whose blue shirt hung open at the waist. As his lordship, moving forward, revealed himself, their voices ceased, and Blood turned to him.

"Good morning to you," he said, and added: "I've blundered badly, so I have. I should have known better than to come so close to Jamaica by night. But I was in haste to land you. Come up here. I have something to show you."

Wondering, Lord Julian mounted the companion as he was—bidden standing beside Captain Blood, he looked astern, following the indication of the Captain's hand, and cried in amazement. There, not more than three miles away, was land—an uneven wall of vivid green that filled the western horizon. And a couple of miles this side of it, bearing after them, came speeding three great white ships.

Wolverstone looked down sardonically upon Lord Julian. "So that you're like to be in yet another sea-fight after we've done w' ships my lord."

"That's a point we were just arguing," said Blood. "For I hold that we're in no case to fight against such odds."

"The odds be damned!" Wolverstone thrust out his heavy, jawed "We're used to odds. The odds was heavier at Maracaibo; yet we won out, and took three ships. They was heavier yesterday when we engaged Don Miguel."

"Aye—but those were Spaniards."

"And what better are these?—Are ye afraid of a lubberly Barbadoon fleet? Whatever ails you, Peter? I've never known ye scared afore."

A gun boomed out behind them.

"It'll be the signal to it to," said Blood, in the same listless voice; and he stopped a sigh.

Wolverstone squared himself before his captain.

"I'll see Colonel Bishop in hell or over I lies to me."

"Aye, but—by your leave," his lordship intervened, "surely there is nothing on the poop, and Pitt immediately below them, had failed to observe. Some moments ago Ogle, followed by the main body of his gun-deck crew, had emerged from the booby hatch, to fall into muttered, angrily vehement talk with those who, abandoning the gun-tackles upon which they were laboring, had come to crowd about him.

Even now Blood had no eyes for him. He turned to look at Miss Bishop, marvelling a little, after the manner in which yesterday she had avoided him, that she should now venture upon the quarter-deck. Her presence at this moment, and considering the nature of his altercation with Wolverstone, was embarrassing. Captain Blood bared his head and bowed silently in a greeting which she returned composedly and formally.

"What is happening, Lord Julian?" she enquired.

As if to answer her a third gun

"They are ships of the Jamaica fleet," his lordship answered her.

Both men turned to add, their attention drawn at the same time by what came bounding up the broad ladder, and to the man loosing aft in his wake. Blood, confronted him.

"What's this?" the Captain demanded sharply. "Your station is on the gun-deck. Why have you left it?"

"Captain," Ogle said, and as he spoke he pointed to the pursuing ships, "Colonel Bishop holds us. We're in no case either to run or fight."

"Ogle," said he, in a voice cold and hard as steel, "Your station is on the gun-deck. You'll return to it at once, and take your crew with you, or else—"

"Treats will not serve, Captain."

Captain Blood's hand closed over the butt of one of the pistols hung about his belt.

Proving Value Of Sunlight

rays Contain Vitamins So Essential To Health

"Vitamins," said Dr. Hector Munro, English specialist, "are nothing more nor less than stored sunlight."

"Sixty per cent of breakdowns in health are due to the retention in the system of waste products. Light energy meets this condition by stabilizing the blood."

"The rays of light which are most valuable to health are those to the right of the spectrum, and it has been found that when these rays are excluded from an area in which a plant has been placed, the plant dies."

"These rays are caught and held by the fruits of the earth, and are the vitamins of which so much has been heard lately."

"Oranges and lemons contain a higher percentage of stored sunlight than any other fruits in the world."

Sectional Prejudice

The Difficulties Attending the Cohesion Of Our Far-Fung Dominions

It is one of the difficulties of our situation in Canada that our population is scattered over a very extensive area. As a consequence it is difficult for our people to escape from sectionalism and the prejudices which are due to imperfect knowledge. Some Canadians are apt to lose sight of the fact that the province of Quebec contains a population practically equal to that of the three western provinces, and that all Canada's total population of British origin is not more than double that of the French.

To some English-speaking people in Eastern Canada, British Columbia and Alberta are little more than geographical expressions; and to many in the West, Quebec is simply a distant province inhabited by people who speak a "foreign" language—Vancouver Province.

Wolverstone interposed again. "Wait a moment, Jeremy," he roared. "Wait!" Captain and loyal follower, then, glanced met, with defiance braving dull anger, surprise and pain.

"There is no question," said Blood, "of surrender for any man aboard save myself. If Bishop can report to England that I am taken and hanged he will magnify himself and at the same time gratify his personal rancour against me. I'll send him a message to protect them to surrender aboard his ship, taking Miss Bishop and Lord Julian with me, but only on condition that the Arabella is allowed to proceed unharmed. It's a bargain that he'll accept if I know him at all."

"You're surely date even to think of Peter!"

"Not so soft as you when you talk of saving that." "Before we run another half-mile we shall be within."

Wolverstone swore elaborately, then suddenly checked. Out of the tail of his single eye he had espied a thin figure in gray silk that was ascending the companion. So engrossed had they been that they had not seen Miss Bishop come from the door of the passage leading to the cabin. And there was something else that those three men on the poop, and Pitt immediately below them, had failed to observe. Some moments ago Ogle, followed by the main body of his gun-deck crew, had emerged from the booby hatch, to fall into muttered, angrily vehement talk with those who, abandoning the gun-tackles upon which they were laboring, had come to crowd about him.

Even now Blood had no eyes for him. He turned to look at Miss Bishop, marvelling a little, after the manner in which yesterday she had avoided him, that she should now venture upon the quarter-deck. ## The Political Wrecker

Men Who Put Their Own Fortunes Before the Good of the Country

Every political society is honey-combed with enemies—men of ill-will who put their own fortunes before the good of the country. But perhaps the most deadly enemies of the political philosophies, the idealists, the traffickers in utopias, the reformers in a hurry. We congratulate ourselves upon being a practical people, but even in our own history some of the most sombre pages are those which are consecrated to the description of the wreckage inflicted by men of good intentions.—London Morning Post.

The Educational Need

Setting forth as his view on the important question of "What Is Alberta's Foremost Educational Problem?" Hon. Peter Baker, minister of education, at the fifteenth annual meeting of Alberta teachers, declared that in his opinion the most pressing educational need today was for a grade eight education as the minimum objective for every boy and girl in the province.

Old Styles Create Amusement

Men's hats of old days afforded the Berlin public much amusement during the recent exhibit of clothing, held to contrast the styles of the last 100 years with the styles of today.

High hats, much taller than those worn today, and as shaggy as a Newfoundland dog, appeared in the winter shows of many haberdashers. Curious straw hats lent by museums also produced broad smiles among the throngs.

Not His Fault

A tramp had been admitted to the casual ward of an English workhouse late one evening, and the following morning duly appeared before the master.

"Have you taken a bath this morning?" was the first question he was asked.

"No, sir," answered the man in astonishment. "Is there one missing?"

French Want British Troops On Rhine

Best Guarantees For Reparation Payments Says French Newspaper

If Britain wishes prematurely to recall her troops from the banks of the Rhine, in order to satisfy her military scruples, let her at least leave her flag flying there with a couple of hundred troops or so, and two or three vessels to protect them. We will do the rest.

Everyone knows that ten thousand British troops in this sector count far more towards the payment of reparations than double that number of Frenchmen.—Le Figaro, Paris.

Jimmy, a five-year-old, came home from school one day and announced that he was in love with a little girl named Hilda.

"In love?" said his mother, in great surprise. "Why, how do you know you are in love?"

"Because," he answered wistfully, "when I have anything I don't want, I give it to Hilda."

Seventy out of every 100 married persons are divorced every year now in the United States, the census bureau reveals.

For years my skin would break out every now and then and itches a great deal.

Read a doctor's article stating that pimples usually come from the glands and boils not getting rid of the poison.

I tried Carter's Little Liver Pills for a few days—and since that time my skin is smooth and clear. Now I feel free to take the right way of getting rid of a break-out.

After a break-out, I take a few of Carter's Liver Pills and a glass of water and it soon disappears.

Carter's Liver Pills are the best I have found.

Japan Building Warships

Honey in Manitoba

The 1,800 beekeepers in the province of Manitoba, with 22,113 colonies, produced 302,000 pounds of honey valued at $185,000 in 1924, according to official return made by the provincial apiculturist.

Alberta's Sunflower Crop

Development of Product Due to Increase in Dairy Industry

One of Alberta's newest crops, sunflowers for silage, amounted to 160,650 tons last year, while fodder corn, also comparatively new, amounted to 269,883 tons. The development of these field products is largely due to the expansion of the dairy industry. Alberta's dairy production last year was valued at close to $23,000,000, and is rapidly increasing. Britain is providing an attractive market for butter, and cheese is finding an increasing demand.

FOR MOTHERS OF YOUNG CHILDREN

Mothers are quick to praise anything which brings health and comfort to their young children, and nothing will always receive hearty recommendation from the mother. That is why Baby Own Tablets are popular.

Thousands of mothers, throughout the country, not only use them for their own little ones, but are always willing to be able to recommend them to other mothers. Thousands of mothers have proved Baby Own Tablets to be without equal in relieving their little ones of any of the many minor complaints, such as a fit of the stomach and bowels. Baby Own Tablets are the ideal laxative—to take in like a balsam, to expel cold and simple fevers; expel worms and make the teething period easy. The Tablets are sold in boxes by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Prince Dreads Getting Heavy

Is Too Active To Become Stout Say Specialists

The Prince of Wales, who is in his early thirties, has already begun to fret a little with the fear that he may suffer from embouchure, say persons close to the royal family.

Just prior to the beginning of his voyage to the Far East and South America he was examined by several specialists. It is declared and when the trip ends he will go over again, being anxious to discover just what effect these ambassadorial jambals have upon his physique.

During several of his previous tours he took on some weight, and as he has a dread of achieving a figure suggestive of the lines of his grandfather, Edward VII, he has made up his mind to keep tabs on himself with the aid of several well-known specialists.

Among the gynaecological apparatus on board the battle cruiser Repulse is a sensitive scale upon which he will record his ups and downs.

Meanwhile, there is little cause for anxiety, according to the doctors, who have given it as their opinion that the Prince need not worry about overweight as long as he keeps up the weight he had before his departure, when his almost daily routine was fox hunting in the morning, official duties in the afternoon and dancing for many hours in the evening.

Typical Of Bohemianism

Elaborate Coffin Ordered From Russia By Chinese Was Only Painted Tin

Sun Yat Sen, the Chinese revolutionist, during the later years of his life became infatuated with the Bolsheviks. Before he died he had to have a burial like that of Lenin. To comply with his wish, his friends led the Soviet authorities at Moscow to send a bronze coffin with a crystal top. The Bolshevik leaders promised. When the coffin reached Pekin, what was the disgust of the Chinese to find that it was a wooden box covered with painted tin to look like bronze and the expected crystal top proved to be only cheap glass.

Nothing could have been more typical of Bolsheviks and the Bolsheviks, the realm of practical ideas no less than in future equipment, their morale a defense. A line with each sword and helmet and compass and destination can cut her way through the most tumultuous seas. A line of constitution and compass and ears and the memory of every fierce and unfriendly sea. Daniel had the mighty safeguard of "purpose true," and when circumstances became such that he had to defend himself on his course (Dr. J. H. Jewett).

Forgot They Had Mummy

One Older Than King Tut Owned By McGill University, Montreal

A mummy or a priestess of the royal house of Egypt, nearly 2,000 years older than the famous Tutankhamen, in a perfect state of preservation, with hair gray and plentiful, has been unpacked at McGill University, Montreal, after lying in a store-room downtown for more than twenty years. It was formerly the property of the Old Natural History Museum, all the contents of which passed into the hands of the local university.

Interest in the mummy was intense and the building in which it is on exhibition was crowded with professors and students. The feet, which were buried, were perfectly preserved, as were also the toe nails. The existence of this had been practically forgotten.

Will Hold Investigation Of Bovine Tuberculosis

Research Council of Canada to Hold Meeting Shortly

In conjunction with the Dominion department of agriculture, the research council of Canada will conduct an investigation of bovine tuberculosis and plans, as announced by Dr. H. M. Tabor, president of the council, will be made for meeting during the latter part of May.

Committees, including the most prominent men in bacteriology in Canada, have been named, and it is the intention of the council to investigate the whole question of human and animal tuberculosis. It is possible that the work will be carried on in central laboratories.

The Terror of Traffic

The tornado, because it takes its victim by the hundred in the twinkling of an eye, causes the public to stop and shudder. But the announcement that seven children and five adults were killed on the highways of this state in one week, coupled with the knowledge that such killing will continue week after week, shows that the path of the tornado falls far short of rivaling the highway as an avenue of death.

A little change in always beneficial. Even the scissors sharpener occasionally feels that he would like to get away from the daily grind.

THE BENEFITS OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE

Golden Text: Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which Daniel 1.8. Lesson: Daniel 1:1-20. Devotional Reading: Psalm 65:9-13.

The Text Explained and Illumined

A Heretic Resolve, verse 8. Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon, director of one of his provinces, Jewish youths of noble families, who were especially fair and bright, and have them enter what was then called "Upper" Pekin College, Babylon. For three years they were to receive education for the civil service. They were to be taught the language and learning of the Chaldeans. They were to be given the best of food and wine served to the king himself. Among the youths selected were Daniel and three companions.

Daniel's heart was so pure in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's delicacies nor with the king's wine.

He kept this with all diligence, for out of this are the issues of life. "A noble heart-purpose is the strongest watchman over external conduct." He did not purpose to be a heretic. ## Canada Points the Way

American Paper Draws Attention to Value of Canadian Friendship

Says the Chicago Tribune: Canada plans no retaliation for the Fordney-McCumber tariff, it appears from the budget address of J. A. Robb, the acting finance minister. Many had feared that the higher tariffs we had imposed would be met by higher duties in Canada. The Canadian's moderation suggested that in future we will do well to adopt the same temper. Canada is our nearest neighbor. We understand each other because as we look out at the world we see as nearly eye to eye as two nations can. Canada's support becomes more important to us every year. Anything which tends to alienate Canadian friendship will prove costly in the long run. We will do well to strain a point in encouraging commerce across our common frontier. No temporary commercial gain could justify the loss of Canadian sympathy.

Gelatin Factory For West

Australian Corporation Looking For Location For $1,000,000 Plant

Establishment of a gelatin manufacturing plant in Western Canada at a cost of more than $1,000,000 is a probability in the near future. A representative of a large Australian corporation was in Winnipeg recently investigating conditions. Where the plant will be located has not been decided as yet, but it will be situated in one of the larger cities of the west.

Grinding Flour For Russian

Nine Mills Working Night and Day to Fill Big Order

After one of the most active periods in its history, the Maple Leaf Milling Company is nearing completion of the largest flour-grinding contract ever executed. The Soviet Government ordered two million barrels of Canadian flour from the company last December, and the delivery of it will soon begin, having left the Atlantic port.

Since the contract was placed the company has kept nine mills in steady operation, night and day; and there has been a continuous stream of flour from them to the Atlantic port whence it was shipped to Batum. Two thousand men have been employed in the grinding of this flour.

With the new mills the company will be able to fill the order.

Not Taking Any Chances

A little girl of seven or eight years old, one day, before a closed gate. A gentleman passed, slowly. The little girl turned and said to him,

"Will you please open this gate for me?"

The gentleman did so; then he said kindly: "Why, my child, couldn't you open the gate for yourself?"

"Because," said the little girl, "the paint's not dry yet."

No need to suffer with corns, or to run the risk of paring them. Remove them surely and painlessly with Holloway's Corn Remover.

ALBERTA COAL GOING

TO ONTARIO

The initial shipment of 25,000 tons of Alberta coal to Ontario points, under the arrangements arrived at between the Alberta government, Dominion government and Canadian National Railways, will be commenced shortly, following the return of Trade Commissioner Howard Stutchbury from the East.

An arrangement has been made between the Alberta government and the C.N.R. whereby the initial shipment of 25,000 tons will be made to prove the freight rate at which the same and we will name out infants government has agreed to bear the difference between $7 a ton rate and the actual cost of carrying the coal, provided there is a difference. The costs will be checked by an expert in behalf of the provincial government and W. P. Hinton, former vice-president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway in charge of traffic, will do this work. The C.N.R. has agreed to carry the coal at actual out-of-pocket operating costs. Orders have been received for more than 200,000 tons from Ontario, and if the arrangement works out satisfactorily to all concerned, there will be considerable market for the Alberta product.

The trial shipment will include coal from Draytonville, Clover-Bar, Penhine, Wehawken, Three Hills, Saunders Creek.

BELLEVUE FISH AND GAME
PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

The objects of the Bellevue Fish and Game Protective Association are as follows: The protection, preservation and propagation of fish and game, and the conservation of the forests.

To educate the general public as to the value of our fish and game and the conserving of it as an attractive hunting and revenue producing resource.

To assist in the enforcing and carrying out of the provisions of the Game Act.

To advise the government from time to time on the most efficient and economical way of restocking depleted waters with game fish; the valleys with feathered game, and the big game ranges with fresh blood, when necessary.

To bring to the notice of the government the most capable and experienced men for the protection of such fish and game.

To act at all times in an advisory capacity to the government on the various questions arising under the Game Act, as to the needs and requirements of fish and game as a resource for the district.

Mr. John Kerr, of Pasbrough, as president, and James Fisher, of Bellevue, as secretary-treasurer, are both enthusiasts of the first water, and under their leadership it is reasonable to expect that much good will be accomplished through this new organization. It is up to those in neighboring camps who are interested to become connected with the Bellevue Fish and Game Protective Association and assist in keeping the ball a-rolling. Similar organizations throughout the country have been recognized by the government, who are prepared at all times to assist in the availing of fry for restocking, provided they can be assured that capable hands are handling them.

In this district a splendid opportunity is afforded for a fish and game propagation, and with an active organization we may look forward to the replenishing of our streams with better fishing and our mountains and vales with more plentiful game.

J. A. MCCOLL
Special representative of the Vancouver Harbour Commissioners in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Bringing him to grain growers and shippers the advantages of the Western grain route and the grain elevators in the West. Mr. McColl is visiting Vancouver, Mr. McColl is visiting Western Saskatchewan this summer, addressing Boards of Trade, U. P. A. and other grain grower organizations calling upon grain shippers to have their grain shipped to Vancouver to offer them as a market.

Having been an Alberta farmer for 18 years, and being born and raised in Alberta, Mr. McColl has been formerly representative Acadia in the Alberta Legislature. His knowledge of the grain situation that is proving invaluable on his present tour. The grain market in the West has been amplified by permanent facilities and the advantages of the grain route.

It is Mr. McColl, at the time member for Acadia, who was responsible for the bill introduced in 1924 taking action to give the Board of Trade power to order grain to be transferred engines and cars from one grain elevator to another to have grain at congress point in Alberta facilities on that occasion saving many farmers from losing their entire crop.

Rev. Pinder, of Hillcrest, exchanged punches with the Rev. W. T. Young on Sunday night last.

On Saturday night last, a miner named Nick Kolesnik was set upon by a gang of four or five men near Hillcrest and beaten unmercifully, apparently with intent to finish him. The man was left by the roadside and, recovering consciousness an hour or so later, made his way to a nearby shack, where medical attendance was summoned and the police were immediately notified. The man's head and face were terribly battered, while a deep laceration of his throat prevented him from speaking. Two members of the gang have been arrested and the police are on the trail of the balance. It is now thought the victim will recover.

LIKES AND LOVES

We like the man who's honest; we like the men who grin; we like the lad who's always glad, whether he lose or win. We like the men who've made a pile, whose jeans with green backs swell; we like the crooks who take Fate's knocks, and never raise a yell. We like the man who's kind to dogs and befriends the fallen cat; we like the gink who makes us think; to him we raise our hat. We like the man whose hair is cut; the man whose feet are mates; we like the blokes who see our jokes, they're welcome at our gates. We like the men who live within the incomes that they earn; we like the nut who smokes a butt, until his whiskers burn.

We like the men we've mentioned, we like their pleasing ways, but Hulky Gee, take this from me, we LOVE the man who pays. The man who always pays his bills, with law, shilling yen is much revered and often cheered by his glad fellow men. He'll have a seat on fleecy clouds among the cherubim, he'll garner fame and we will name our infants after him.—Ex.

SWEET SIXTEEN

Mothers and fathers too often make the mistake of believing the old nursery rhyme:

"What are little girls made of?
Sugar and spice,
And everything nice.
That's what little girls are made of!"

Sometimes they do not realize until too late their little daughters have grown into women . . . and they are not made of sugar and spice, but of healthy flesh-and-blood, with all the emotions and temptations that flesh-and-blood is heir to!

"Sweet Sixteen" we say of the very young girl. But 16 is anything but sweet if she has been on too many "necking" parties.

There is only one way for a mother to keep her daughter "Sweet Sixteen." Shutting her up in the house, and forbidding her to have beau's, won't do it.

If a girl of 16 can't have her boy friends come to see her at home, she will meet them on street corners, nine times out of ten.

For she is going to do the things that her girl friends do—if only to be in style!

And if she has made up her mind to find out all about life, she is going to find out about it. And nothing can stop her!

So it's the wise mother that welcomes daughter's half-grown admirers in the house, and keeps an eye on the front parlor.

It's the wise mother who tells her budding young daughter about all the clean fine facts of love and life, in her own clean, straightforward way.

This kind of woman . . . who is an older sister to her daughter . . . shields her from the dreadful mistakes that so many unguided girls make.

For they do make dreadful mistakes . . . these wild young things who sneak away from a dance to "pet" in some boy friend's parked automobile; who are cafe habitues because they are high school graduates.

Many and many a girl has had the blood taken from her budding womanhood by "puppy love" and its mistakes.

And it's "up" to mother to prevent them . . . to keep daughter "Sweet Sixteen."—Ex.

Mrs. E. Officer, travelling passenger agent of the C.P.R., Edmonton, was in town yesterday and at night gave a film picture in the Elks' hall on "Canada." The pictures were very interesting and descriptive and were much enjoyed. The pictures are being shown at Coleman tonight. In each case a collection is being taken for the Anglican church Boy Scout funds.

Dr. H. G. Nyblett, formerly of Macleod, died in the Holy Cross hospital at Calgary on Tuesday morning.

THE "ONE-FOUR PIERROT TROUPE"

Speaking of the appearance of the "One-Four Pierrots" for the first time at Coleman, the Coleman correspondent to the Lethbridge Herald has the following to say:

"The Palace theatre was packed on Wednesday evening to welcome and enjoy the first appearance of the "One-Four Pierrot Troupe." The talents displayed on Wednesday evening shows they know how to entertain and please the public.

"Their director, Tom Johnston, has them well in hand and everything moves with precision and keep you amused or entertained all the time. It was advertised as a feast of fun and foolishness but it was more.

"Tom Johnston has a rich baritone voice which is heard with good effect in his fine selections.

"Wm. Smith is a tenor and has a fine range which is pleasingly brought out in his solos. Alf. Phillips sings with ease and grace.

"The clowns—Lost and Found—are a source of surprise, suspense and song. They are clever and their work is well staged and their songs and keeps you in roars of laughter.

"A Kay is a tower of strength at the piano and is a clever and finished pianist.

"The troupe singing is a treat in itself and will be enjoyed by all who love 'mass' singing. Their debut, as Pierrots was a decided success and as they continue to perform every 'show' ought to get better."

"Coleman citizens were pleased and satisfied with their initial effort. When they come back from their tour we may hear them again.

"The following was the programme: Opening chorus, Pierrot parade, Pierrots; pianoforte solo, A. Kay; baritone solo, "King of the Deep," T. Johnston; cross paths and song, Lancashire Jazz Band; "Lost," Farnie Hull; humorous quartet, Measys, Duffield, Locke and Phillips; conducted by "Found," Wm. Lane; song, "God Gave me Wonderful Dreams," Wm. Smith; chorus, "I'm Absent," Pierrots; comic sketch, "Slat Machine," Pierrots; baritone solo, "Glory of the Sea," Alf. Phillips; comic skit, and song, "Cohen on Phone," Wm. Lane; humorous chorus, "Tommy Went a-Fishing," Pierrots; humorous song, "The Girl I Left Behind Me," (parody), Garfield Jones; final chorus, "Good Night," Pierrots. God Save the King."

The "One-Four Pierrots" will appear at the local Orpheum theatre on Wednesday night next. May the 6th. See bills for further particulars.

The troupe recently returned from a successful tour throughout southeastern British Columbia.

Sunday next will be observed as anniversary Sunday at the Coleman Institutional church. The special speaker at the morning and evening services will be the Rev. T. T. Canada's Day of Opportunity

The commencement of Spring operations throughout Canada has ushered in a feeling of optimism in practically all lines of activity and in all sections of the country with the exception of the coal mining areas of Nova Scotia where the disastrous miners' strike is still in progress at the time of writing and with little hope of an early settlement.

There are substantial grounds for such optimism and the stronger confidence in Canada's immediate future which is now increasingly evident. During March there was a substantial improvement in manufacturing and particularly so in the textile industry. Permits for new building likewise show a gratifying increase, and these betterments, taken in conjunction with the demand for farm help, are operating to provide a larger volume of employment.

Conditions throughout the Western Provinces appear to be uniformly good and altogether encouraging. Farm operations have begun under favoring conditions of plenty of moisture in the soil and well in advance of last year, and notwithstanding a considerable drop from the peak prices prevailing a month or two ago, grain prices are still good, with prospects for prices prevailing at a figure which will result in a fair profit on agricultural operations.

During February and March there was, according to the April Monthly Commercial Letter of the Bank of Commerce, a steady increase in the number of farms sold in practically all parts of Canada, and particularly so in the prairie provinces. Immigration is steadily increasing and a gratifying number of settlers of an exceptionally good type are arriving from the British Isles.

For the second time in the past six years the month of February showed a favorable balance of trade, the excess of exports over imports being the greatest since 1919, and the total value of trade larger than in the corresponding month of 1921, when prices were substantially higher than at present.

But promising as the immediate future appears to be, the outlook is even brighter for Canada in the years to come because of the increasing necessity on the part of the United States to import food supplies. Reference was made in this column some weeks ago to the prediction of President Coolidge that in a comparatively few years the United States would be one of the greatest food importing countries in the world. Confirmation of this statement has already come from Secretary Hoover who states that the United States is importing butter and cheese on an increasing scale. Once the greatest of exporters of cattle and meats, the United States is now regarded in Great Britain as having ceased to be a source of supply of meat.

The population of the United States is increasing at the rate of one and a half million people annually, and this large increase is principally due to the growth of industrial centres. The production of wheat, or cattle, of dairy products is not increasing in like proportion. Ten years hence there will be 15,000,000 more people in the United States to be fed, and their food supplies will have to be imported. Here is to be found Canada's golden opportunity.

Canada is the logical source of supply for the United States, and apparently our people are getting ready to capture this business. For example, Canada exported ten million more pounds of butter during the past twelve months than during the previous year. The salmon pack in British Columbia last year was the largest ever made in the Province, and 400,000 cases larger than in any year for five years. Cattle exports are steadily increasing and owing to the higher prices now ruling for beef cattle, coupled with the fact that the world's demand for beef has now overtaken the supply, Canada may be expected to secure its full share of this trade.

There have been times when truly patriotic Canadians have expressed doubts as to the Dominion's future and whose confidence has been shaken as they have contemplated this country's geographical handicaps and noted tens of thousands of its people leaving for the country to the south, drawn by the magnet of opportunity there. But there is nothing in the prospect now existing before Canada to induce despair or shake one's confidence. Truly the future is true.

The twentieth century will yet be found to be Canada's century. The fulfillment of that prophecy will be derived, during the first quarter by reason of the war and the after-effects of the war, but mainly by present conditions and tendencies in Canada, the world economic situation, and more especially the trend of events in the United States, all point to the inevitable conclusion that this Dominion now occupies an exceptionally strategic position, and it only remains for the Canadian people to bestir themselves and take full advantage of the opportunities before them to achieve happiness and prosperity for themselves and a place for Canada in the very forefront of nations.

Endurance of Wolves
 A pack of wolves will travel from 25 to 40 miles in a night, appearing in a vicinity which has not seen them for years, to raid a stock farm, then vanish like lean, gray ghosts after committing hundreds of thousands of dollars of damage.—Los Angeles Times.

Canaries in their wild state were green and had louder and clearer voices than the domestic variety. They were first brought to Europe in the 16th century.

Export of Raw Fur
 Raw fur shipped out of Canada last year brought back more money than all the livestock that was exported. The notion that the "Blandster" is waste land is a mistake. Its fur produced last year ran to sixteen million dollars in the undressed state. And as the supply shrinks the prices go up.—Edmonton Bulletin.

More than 3,000,000,000 cigarettes were smoked in the British Isles last year.

McKim's Directory Of Canadian Publications

A Reliable Source of Information For Advertisers

Advertisers throughout Canada and in the United States will welcome the 1925 edition of McKim's Directory of Canadian Publications which has just been issued.

This is the eighteenth edition, the first issue having appeared in 1892. The directory is published by A. McKim Limited, Canada's largest Advertising Agency, which was established in 1889. The agency early recognized that a dependable record of Canadian publications was necessary in the sound development of advertising and so the first issue of the directory was published when the McKim Agency had been only three years in business.

McKims' Directors of Canadian Publications is accepted as a reliable source of information on Canadian publications and, as well, is consulted for Canadian geographical and statistical particulars. Since the first edition was published, each succeeding issue has shown an improvement over the previous one.

Builder Held In Contempt

Chinese Arbor Name of Man Who Built Great Wall

The name of the man who built the great stone wall of China is now reversed. In most countries the hero of such an achievement would be immortalized in history and song. But in China—nothing of the kind has happened. "Rich and poor, learned and simple, speak of the builder of the Great Wall with contempt. They lose sight of the wall in contemplating the wickedness of the man who built it." It is said that Hwang Ti utilized every third able-bodied man in his kingdom for the work. Millions must have been so employed by the time the task was finished, and it was not completed during the First Emperor's reign. More than two thousand years ago the Great Wall was built, and the human agony entailed in its construction is remembered in China. Even of that fact that the wall was associated with human suffering, and it has been grimly but truthfully described as the longest cemetery on earth.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

The Surest Way to Relieve Stomach Troubles Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

When the stomach is feeble and food left in it undigested, the poisonous gases distend the walls of the stomach and cause serious interference with the action of the heart and lungs. These poisonous gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and so act in concert as to cause aches in the head, pain in the heart and the formation of unhealthy vapors. Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as food is properly digested and the body can digest the food. In other words, it does a tonic to that will enable it to do the work of changing the food into a digestible form.

The following is a great deal of information from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills:

Herb and Root Pills, prepared by Mrs. Clara Laddar, Eudale, S.D., who says:—"For some years I suffered from stomach trouble. Every time I ate I suffered from indigestion and belching. I could not eat meat or potatoes, and I grew weak and very nervous. No medicine would help me until I was persuaded to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have been taking them ever since and they have agreed with me to one that I will agree with the most delicate stomach, and this is exactly what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys so they can do their work of waste removal and enlargement makes further demands. Who can then say that fulgurating nerves are not a great help to the kidney?

"There are at present within 15 miles of the railways, 25,000,000 acres of land which will give to industry 25,000,000 per year and $13,000,000 to railroads per year."

"Now where are we? Are we not pointing a way to the solution of the Canadian railroad problem? We are confident that only by the creation of new business in Canada can you have a share in that creation."

"Canada has no parallel on earth in the manner of development or its opportunity for development. The U.S. had 9,000,000 people there were but few people west of the Rocky Mountains and the development of the West was slow. Canada has the West. Canada has to live up to the problems of Eastern Canada and the problems are entirely different. The Canadian railway took over the burden of the development of the West and built the connecting link between British Columbia and Eastern Canada, and has been engaged in the development of the great West since a territory more vast than the U.S. including Alaska, Alberta alone can accommodate in area the British Isles with Belgium, Denmark, Netherlands, Switzerland and Czechoslovakia and also Poland is still room for more, and the population of Canada has 320,000,000 compared with Alberta's present population of 888,454."

POOR PROSPECTS FOR COMPLETION OF H.B. RAILWAY

Winnipeg.—The Ottawa correspondent of The Manitoba Free Press says: "During the past six weeks there has been a remarkable change in the prospects for the completion of the railway to Hudson's Bay."

"Advocates of the railway in the Progressive group, as well as western cabinet ministers, were optimistic early in the session of obtaining an adequate vote for the completion of the line."

"Now, however, the situation appears to have changed entirely. There is doubt that the usual vote of $350,000 will be forthcoming for maintaining the present trackage, although there has been no official intimation upon which to base these opinions. Cabinet ministers are not as favorable as formerly."

"In an interview, Andrew Knox, M.P., one of the chief advocates of the railway, declared that the prospects of obtaining action at this session of parliament appeared very remote."

Canada's Merchant Marine Loss

Million and Half for 1924 Without Accrued Interest

Ottawa.—The Canadian Government Merchant Marine had an operating loss last year of $1,440,880, which is $432,418 less than the loss in 1923, according to the annual report of Sir Henry Thornton, tabled in the house. If to this operating loss is added interest accrued, amounting to $4,466,144, and depreciation, amounting to $2,929,584, the loss for the year comes to $8,336,609.

This total deficit of $8,336,609 is $532,061 less than in 1923.

The report referred to the total loss for the year under this rubric:

"In order to avoid any misuderstanding, it may be well to call attention to the fact that this amount includes more than $4,000,000 for interest still charged against the company on its books, in favor of the Dominion Government, and nearly $3,000,000 for depreciation. Each of these items is calculated on the original wartime cost of the vessels of the fleet."

Would Cancel Fire Insurance

Plan Suggested By Fire Preventive Association to Punish Negligence

Ottawa.—Cancellation of all fire insurance benefits to persons who, through their own negligence, are responsible for fires is to be urged upon all provincial governments by representatives of the Dominion Fire Prevention Association. It was also urged that the federal, provincial and municipal governments install sprinkler systems on all public buildings.

That provincial governments make it compulsory for all municipalities to install adequate fire extinguishing equipment and that all isolated rural farm property be provided with at least one chemical extinguisher or portable hand-pump of approved type for fire extinguishing purposes, was also urged.

Future Peace In Europe

Should Be Based On Goodwill Thinks Sir Esme Howard.

Princeton, N.J.—Reasons for Great Britain's rejection of the Geneva protocol for compulsory arbitration of international disputes and hopes held out for future peace in Europe by means of the security pacts proposed by Germany, were outlined by Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, in an address before the English Speaking Union.

"It is impossible to say now," he asserted, "how the security pact discussions will end, but we can at least all hope that they may lead to a settlement by agreement and to the establishment of a peace not dependent upon heavy and ruinous armaments, but based on goodwill and common sense."

"If that comes about," Sir Esme continued, "the next disarmament conference will not be long in coming. Of that we may be sure. If, on the other hand, this hope also fades away and dies, then, I frankly do not see any other alternative than the maintenance of our national security; and what irony to call it security by force of arms and military alliances, which will make crushing taxation, financial ruin and the inevitable armageddon in the end."

Cape Breton Mine Strike

International Behind Miners in Fight To a Finish.

Sydney, N.S.—"We have the full support of the international union, and are more determined than ever to carry the struggle through to a successful conclusion," was the statement made by President J. W. McLeod, of District 26, United Mine Workers of America, in an interview in which he announced the receipt of formal notices from International President J. L. Lewis to the effect that funds of the international organization had been placed to the credit of the district for immediate use, and that a full meeting of the district executive would be held at Glace Bay to decide on the most efficient method of distributing the strike among the miners of the district.

Request Action On Peace Rail Outlet

Vancouver Board of Trade Asks For Immediate Report.

Vancouver.—Insistence that the Federal Government should obtain from Ottawa a head of Canada's own outlet for the Peace River valley and that action to relieve the northern agricultural belt from its isolation should be taken at the present session of parliament, was contained in a resolution passed by the Vancouver board of trade.

By reaffirming their stand in favor of linking the Peace River Valley with the Pacific coast, the board of trade urges the associated boards of trade of the Peace River in upon the government for action.

Decrease In Export Of Canadian Wheat

Thirty Per Cent. Lower Than in March, 1924.

Ottawa.—Canada's wheat exports in March, 1925, were about 30 per cent. of the exports in March, 1924. Last month, 4,224,518 bushels of wheat went out of Canada. In March, 1924, 13,446,100 bushels were exported.

Exports of flour were only slightly lower, or 1,397,919 barrels, compared with 1,385,240 barrels in March, 1924. Exports of barley were higher and of oats and rye somewhat lower. In the eight months ended March 31 last wheat exports totalled 101,241,020 bushels compared with 204,901,636 bushels in the previous corresponding eight months.

One Alberta company, it is said, has five hundred of these yearlings on a farm near Stirling, ready for shipment, and it is stated that five hundred more will be shipped out of the Madoc section. The buyers are in various parts of the country, where the black and white predominate.

"They are going in for milk production, according to a Belleville man interested in the beef and dairy business. Some bulls are also being bought."

Trying To Discontinue "Picture Bride" System

U.S. and Canadian Authorities Shutting Down on Scheme.

Washington.—United States and Canadian authorities, according to a statement by Commissioner General Husband, of the immigration service, are trying to break up the "picture bride" system of bringing Greek girls into this country via Canada. It appears Greek girls are brought to Canada and married to United States citizens, and then brought to the United States. Both Canada and the immigration authorities here are shutting down on the scheme.

PREFERABLE TO KEEP SEPARATE RAILWAY LOANS

Ottawa.—Differing sharply from critics of the budget, Hartley Martel, Liberal, St. Lawrence-St. George, Montreal, held, in the house, that the financial statement presented by Hon. J. A. Robb, acting minister of finance, was "clear to analyse and clear in its effect." He did not agree that railway loans should be included in the total of net consolidated debt. Operation of the National Railways had been "an extremely expensive matter" for the people of the Dominion, but while our railway debt was a debt of the Dominion, Mr. Marler thought it was another matter that it should be included in the consolidated total.

For one reason, Mr. Marler argued, the question of public ownership was on trial, and it, at any subsequent date, may be terminated. "It would be distinctly preferable to have as large a part as possible of our railway debt kept separate from our other financial debts," he submitted, however, that the public should be given such a year a statement of the combined debt, showing in one part the consolidated debt, with its increases or decreases, and in another part any increase in the railway indebtedness.

Mr. Marler estimated that in the last six years the Dominion had put $558,313,974 of new money into railways. "Member who are so much in favor of public ownership," he added, "or who desire extensions and costly improvements, will pause for a moment and consider how long we can keep this pace—or how any of them can expect decreases in our taxation if this yearly expenditure is continued. The only way to reduce taxation was to spend less."

BRITAIN LOSING CONTROL OF SEA IS CONTENTION

London.—Britain is losing control of the sea, according to the annual St. George's Day message of the Navy League.

The league warns Britain that while she is building only five cruisers the United States and Japan each are building, or have projected, eight cruisers. The focus of sea power, the league continues, has shifted from European waters to the Pacific.

"We wish to draw attention to one pregnant fact," the league declares.

have set eyes on a British battle fleet.
